ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: An initial implementation of these pages (and most of the information for them) was created by Gene Jeffries and published on this web site about 2002. The pages were removed from the web site when maintaining and updating the many files proved too onerous. With Gene's consent, we are republishing these files as an aid to Orangeburgh researchers and are working on streamlining the maintenance and update process.

DISCLAIMER: The family information included in Orangeburgh Family Migrations was compiled from a variety of sources, many of which are not documented. These pages have not been checked for accuracy and should not be treated as authoritative documentation on these families. They are provided as a hopefully helpful source of leads to further research into these families.

Migration of the Bartholomew GARTMAN and Margaret Catherine Family

1. Bartholomew GARTMAN, born 26 Jul 1733 in Safien-Neukirch, Canton Graubunden, Switzerland; died 6 Jul 1801 in Jefferson Co., Georgia, son of Bartholomew GARTMAN and Barbara (GARTMAN) Gartman . He married abt. 1775 in South Carolina to Margaret Catherine [unknown], born abt. 1758 in South Carolina; died 1805 in Jefferson Co., Georgia.

   Notes for Bartholomew GARTMAN: Captain in the SC Militia in the Revolutionary War. Lived in the area of Lexington Co. (Dutch Fork or Saxe Gotha) and died in GA in 1801. Bartholomew Gartman listed 1 rifle gun and shot bag; 1 bayonet and one Dragon sword. Farmer. Had 6 males, 3 females, and 1 slave in 1790. On 20 Oct 1795 he was the administrator for the estate of John Gartman Sr. Moved to Jefferson County, Georgia in 1797 and purchased 500 acres of land from Michael and Sarah Shellman. Revolutionary War Claim #3285 provided 15 head t of cattle for militia use in 1778; provisions on 12 Jul 1786; served as a Horseman from 1 Mar 1780 to 20 May 1780 and 5 Aug 1780 to 1 Oct 1781; also, 3 Oct 1781 to Aug 1782. On 7 May 1798 Bartholomew Gartman and George Kizer, received in trust a grant of 41 acres for the German Protestant Church, St. Bartholomew's Parish, Charleston District, on Savannah Creek, bounded by George Kizer's land; John Kizer's land and Jacob Rumph's land.

Notes for Margaret Catherine [unknown]: In 1825 the widow Catherine Girtman was living in Dobbs District, Jefferson County, GA and drew land lot #22 in twelfth district of Henry County, GA. Again, on May 4, 1827 as a widow of a Rev. War soldier she drew lot 230 in the fifth district of Carroll County, GA but did not claim this land until 1838. By 1838 she was living in Marshalls District of Jefferson County, Georgia.

Children of Bartholomew GARTMAN and Margaret Catherine [unknown] were as follows:

a. Daniel GARTMAN, born 1780 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 1820 in Hazlehurst, Jeff Davis Co., Georgia. ## Migration of the Abraham GEIGER and Cathrina SCHELLIG Family

1. Abraham GEIGER was born 4 Mar 1687 in Haslach, parish Berneck, in the Unterrheintal [later canton St. Gallen], Switzerland, christened on 9 Mar 1687 in Berneck. He died 7 May 1766 in Saxegotha Township, South Carolina. On 25 Feb 1716, he married Cathrina SCHELLIG, born Jan 1687 in Langmoos, parish Berneck, christened 29 Jan 1687 in Berneck. The extended Geiger/Schellig family arrived in Charlestown on 1 Feb 1736/7 (Julian calendar) on the ship Prince of Wales, Capt. George Dunbar.

   Notes for Abraham GEIGER: A tract of 300 acres was surveyed for Abraham Gyger on 12 Sep 1737, as was Saxegotha Town Lot #63. The plantation was on the southwest side of the Congaree River, with the land of John Shillig/Schellig (Abraham's brother-in-law) to its southeast and the land of Herman Gyger (Abraham's nephew) to its northwest. In ~1752, Abraham Geiger sold his 300 acres to merchant Robert Stiell/Steel, who petitioned unsuccessfully for a license to run a public ferry across the Congaree River at the site. Abraham Geiger purchased no other Saxegotha property, and was apparently in residence with his children on the lower Saluda River between 1752 and his death in 1766. During the Cherokee Wars, frontier settlers took shelter at the nearest house-fort. The fort of John Rawls was two miles to the west of the Saluda River Geiger households. Ulrich Geiger was reimbursed by the province in 1762 for a steer he'd provided for the refugees at Rawl's Fort.

   Children of Abraham GEIGER and Cathrina SCHELLIG were:

   a. Hans Jacob Geiger, born 1717 in Haslach, christened 20 Mar 1717 in Berneck, died 6 Jul 1718 in Haslach.

   b. Hans Jacob GEIGER, born 1718 in Haslach, christened 27 Nov 1718 in Berneck, St. Gall, died in Saxegotha, South Carolina by ~1760. He married Anna Maria FRIDIG, christened 25 Oct 1721 in Koniz, canton Bern; she emigrated to Saxegotha Township, South Carolina with parents Martin FRIDIG and Maria Magdalena DYSSLI in 1735 on the ship William.

Notes for Hans Jacob GEIGER: Children of Hans Jacob GEIGER and Anna Maria FRIDIG were: Mary Magdalena, Anna Cathrina, and Anna Maria Geiger.

Notes for Anna Maria FRIDIG: Abt. 1760 Hans Jacob's widow, Anna Maria Fridig Geiger, married neighbor Jacob WEBER (1725-1761).

c. Johannes GEIGER, born in Haslach, christened 21 Jan 1721 in Berneck, St. Gall, died in Saxegotha, South Carolina before 1790. He married Barbara ZANGER, born Oberhasle, Bern, Switzerland; she emigrated to Orangeburgh Township, South Carolina with parents Simon Zanger and his unnamed wife in 1735 on the ship Samuel.

   Notes for Johannes GEIGER: Children of Johannes GEIGER and Barbara ZANGER included Abraham, John II, Tobias, and unnamed daughters. John Geiger was one of the four people convicted on 31 Mar 1761 of the two Weberite murders, and sentenced to hang. Leader Jacob Weber was hanged on 17 Apr 1761. John Geiger, his sister-in-law Anna Maria Fridig Geiger Weber, and neighbor Jacob Burckhardt/Bourghart were pardoned, and returned to the Saluda River.

d. Hans Georg GEIGER, born in Hardt, St. Gall, christened 3 Dec 1722 in Berneck, died 20 Mar 1724 in Hardt, St. Gall.

e. Elsbetha GEIGER, born in Hardt, St. Gall, christened 7 Sep 1724 in Berneck, died 8 Jul 1726 in Hardt, St. Gall.

f. Elsbetha GEIGER, born in Hardt, St. Gall, christened 21 Dec 1726 in Berneck.

   Notes for Elsbetha GEIGER: Her marriage, if any, in South Carolina is undocumented. Some family traditions and circumstantial evidence suggest that she may have been the first wife of John Jacob Fridig/Friday (christened 18 Aug 1719 in Muri Bei Frutigen, Bern, died ~1779 in Saxegotha), who lived adjacent to John Jacob Geiger and wife Anna Maria Fridig/Friday on Geiger's Creek [currently Kinley Creek] of the Saluda River.

g. Hans Ulrich GEIGER, born in Hardt, St. Gall, christened 18 Jun 1730 in Berneck, died 12 Jun 1777 in Effingham/Bulloch County, Georgia. He married and had four children in South Carolina before moving to the Ogeechee River region of St. Philip's Parish Georgia in 1766. The four oldest children were Abraham, Felix, John and Mary. In Georgia, he and wife Apollonia (maiden name unknown) christened two more children at the Jerusalem (Lutheran) Church at Ebenezer in St. Matthew's Parish Georgia. They were Rachel, born Feb 1769 and christened 13 Jun 1769, and Cornelius, born 1 Feb 1774 and christened 18 Jul 1774. Daughter Rachel did not survive to maturity.

Notes for Hans Ulrich GEIGER: Colonial Georgia Council Journal at Savannah on July 1, 1766 "Read a Petition of Ulric Kegar setting forth that he was at present an Inhabitant of South Carolina but proposed immediately to remove into this Province with his family being a Wife, four children and one Negro in order to settle and cultivate Land..." The 300 acres was granted on 2 Jun 1767; he filed a Memorial on 18 Jul 1767. Bulloch County, Georgia deeds (Deed Book AA, p. 288): Jan. 16, 1815: Felix Geiger, Abraham Geiger, Mary Hofman and Cornelius Geiger, legal heirs of Ulrick Kegar dec'd. sold to their brother John Geiger, also a legal heir of Ulrick Kegar, for the sole intention that strict justice may be obtained and done to their brother and to prevent dispute and lawsuit, that parcel of land being one-fifth or 60 acres, originally granted 2nd June 1767 to Ulrick Kegar. Wit.: Jacob Geiger, Philip Geiger, and Stephen Denmark, J.P. Ulrich Geiger's children lived in Wayne and Bryan County, Georgia, as well as in Effingham/Bulloch. Grandchildren settled to the south and west, including Florida (Clay, Nassau and Duval Co) and Mississippi (Covington, Greene and Perry Co).

1. Jesse RAMBO, born 9 Oct 1778 in South Carolina; died 16 Dec 1860 in Gwinnett County, Georgia, son of Swan RAMBO JR and Elizabeth PINSON Rambo. He married on 22 Oct 1801 in South Carolina to Mary HUMPREY, born 15 Oct 1780; died 9 Aug 1862 in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

   Notes for Jesse RAMBO:[ See "Jesse Rambo" from Writings of Judge Winn in HISTORY OF GWINNETT COUNTY by Flannigan, pp. 356ff.] Jesse is described as an odd genius, full of eccentricities and quaint sayings. "He was queer in his looks, queer in his talk, queer in his notions, queer in his habits, queer in everything. We miss the old man from our town with his good humor, his anecdotes, his droll sayings and expressions." According to this article, Jesse had one son, Kinchin. The same book gives information on the fact that Jesse was a slave owner: In 1840 - Jesse had 19; in 1850 - Jesse had 18; in 1860 - Jesse had 18. Jesse's farm in 1860 contained 510 acres. The 1800 census for Barnwell County, South Carolina, lists his household as having 1 male between 16 and 26, 1 female between 16 and 26, and 1 female over 45, who is believed to be Jesse's mother, the widow of Swan Rambo, Jr. Jesse's household in the Barnwell County 1810 census lists 1 male under 10 Kinchin, 1 male between 26 and 45, and 1 female between 26 and 45. The next census, in 1820, lists Jesse and his family living in Barnwell County; the members of the household were 1 male between 16 and 26, 1 male between 26 and 45, and 1 female between 26 and 45." In the 1830 Census, Gwinnett County, Georgia, Jesse Rambo heads a household of one male and one female, both age 40-50; and eleven slaves. Jesse and his family moved from South Carolina between 1820 and 1830. Jesse is listed as head of a household in Gwinnett County in 1840; in the 1850 Census, Gwinnett County, Loran [?] District, Georgia: JESSE RAMBO, age 72; born in South Carolina. Farmer, owning real estate valued at $4000. MARY RAMBO, AGE 70. 1860 Census, Gwinnett County, Lawrenceville P. O., Georgia JESSE RAMBO, age 82; born in South Carolina. Could not read or write. Farmer, owning real estate valued at $540; personal property of $9, 490. MARY RAMBO, wife, age 80. In the state archives at Columbia, SC, two surveys of land for Jesse Rambo, both on Hollow Creek. One tract of 69 acres was surveyed on 15 January 1817, and received on 27 January 1817. The second tract, of 33 acres, was surveyed December 1817 and received on 1 Feb 1818. The Jan document carries the signatures of both Jesse and Kinchin. Rambo's Mill appears on Hollow Creek on an early map of Barnwell County Two affidavits dated Sept and Oct 1818 confirming that Jesse was married to Mary some considerable time before the birth of his son Kinchin. "Direct Index to Deeds–Barnwell County" also lists Jesse Rambo as grantor and Daniel Hicks as grantee in 1799 of 21 acres on Hollow Creek. In 1830 as a member of Georgia Militia District Number 407, Jesse had a lucky draw in the land lottery: Land, Section 2, Fifth District, Lot 97, 160 acres, which would be in the newly created Gilmer County. The land was granted before January 1838. According to the Gwinnett Daily News, May 14, 1978, Jesse Rambo's home still exists and was being restored by its owner: The house is included in a historical tour guide and newsletter published by the Gwinnett Historical Society 1968-1974, reprinted in 1979.

Children of Jesse RAMBO and Mary HUMPREY were as follows:

a. Kinchin RAMBO, born 5 Feb 1802 in South Carolina; died 21 May 1882 in Floyd County, Georgia. He married Mary Ann PRIOR Rambo, born 4 Nov 1807 in South Carolina; died 2 Nov 1891 in Floyd County, Georgia.

   Notes for Kinchin RAMBO: A copy of Rev. Kinchin Rambo's diary, written in his own hand, is on file at the Gwinnett Historical Society in Lawrenceville, GA. He writes that he was baptised Nov. the 3rd Sabbath 1826. On April 13, 1832, he was licensed to preach; and he was ordained in the Redland Church April 20, 1833. He states his purpose as keeping a record of "such acts of my ministerial life, as Ordinations, Baptisms, Constitutions, Marriages, etc." and he proceeds to do so from 1832 to Sept. 5, 1880. On Oct. 14, 1875, he makes the following notation: "I have assisted in the ordination of 11 preachers and in the constitution of 9 churches and in the ordination of 19 Deacons and baptized 108 persons." Probate records for Kinchin's estate are in the Floyd County Courthouse in Rome, GA. Henry Van Rambo served as administrator of his father's estate. Receiving distributions were S. J. Loyd, guardian of F. C. Loyd; M. L. and M. S. Hood; J. T. and J. E. Bankston; B. M. and M. L. Bailey; Wm H Rambo replaced in later distributions by William's heirs, Z. S. Rambo and others; and A. K. and M. L. Rambo. Loyd was the minor son of Kinchen's daughter Martha, deceased. Millie Hood, Jane Bankston, William Rambo, and A. K. Rambo were all children of Kinchen's son Cyrenius, deceased. The appraisement of the estate was for $3625, including $3000 for the farm and $400 in various notes and accounts. Books were valued at $10. Documents include the sale of 100 acres of Lot 314 and 7 acres of lot 299, 4th Dist., 4th Sect. for $1660.

Migration of the Gasper SISTRUNK and Marian Leitner [---] Family

1. Gasper SISTRUNK, born abt. 1749; died 1810, son of Hans Heinrich SISTRUNK and Ursula YGLY. He married Marian Leitner [--].

   Notes for Gasper SISTRUNK: R.S. #197. Gasper Sistrunk (I) was owner of extensive land grants. His first is recorded March 18, 1785 for 640 acres in Orangeburg District, and included the home site where his son Casper Sistrunk was born, and lived during his entire life, and on which the children of Casper lived after him. Dec. 26, 1802, Gasper Sistrunk received 641 acres adjoining the above grant, and on Dec. 39, 1805, either Gasper the first, or his son, got 82 more acres adjoining the last grant. Oct. 11, 1810, Gasper Sistrunk acquired another 400 acres on Little Beaver Creek and the Congaree. He evidently left his land in the Orangeburg area and went to live on his estate in Richland County, for he is listed as living in that county in the 1810 and 1820 Census report. The next transaction was on June 5, 1818. He purchased less than an acre near Columbia. The plat shows it adjoined his other property. His will was made and probated in Richland County, and he was presumably living with his daughters and two grandchildren. [Reference: "OLIVER - SISTRUNK FAMILIES, Orangeburg Area South Carolina" by Georgie I. Adams Lefvendahl] (Mrs. P. A.) Jasper's Will was recorded in Richland County will book H page 136. It was written March 29, 1825 and recorded May 13, 1825.

Notes for Marian Leitner [--]: Marian Seastrunk is buried beneath Washington Street Methodist Church, Columbia, SC, but her tombstone recording is listed in the inventory that was done by the church before renovation. It states that she was the wife of J. Seastrunk. Her identity as a Lightner was found in the will of her father, George Lightner, that was recorded in Richland County, SC and dated October 28, 1812.

Children of Gasper SISTRUNK and Marian Leitner [--] were as follows:

a. John SISTRUNK, born 1777; died 1840 in Lincoln County, Georgia.

b. David SISTRUNK, born 1780; died 1850. In Georgia some years.

c. George SISTRUNK, born 1783; died 1839.

d. Casper SISTRUNK, born 4 Feb 1784; died 5 Feb 1857. He married (1) on 17 Dec 1811 to Mary OLIVER, born 20 Oct 1784; died 31 May 1844, daughter of Thomas OLIVER and Elizabeth SISTRUNK; (2) abt. 1849 to Anne LEYSATH, born 14 Dec 1809; died 28 Jun 1888.

   Notes for Casper SISTRUNK: Casper Sistrunk is supposed to have changed his name from Gasper about the time of his marriage, or a little earlier. He lived in the house his father originally built on his property located on the famous old Bull Swamp Road between Orangeburg and North, S.C. One of his grandsons, James Newton Sistrunk and his wife, Mary Ann K. Muller, lived in this house for some years after their marriage in 1881. It is possible that Casper Sistrunk, before he changed his name from Gasper, could have procured the 82-acre tract of land on Dec. 30, 1805, as he was 21 years of age at that time, and the tract adjoined his father's property not far from the homestead. However, it is certain that he did get 25-1/2 acres on Little Beaver Creek in Orangeburg District on June 24, 1824, and this adjoined land he already owned and which his father had owned before him. Casper Sistrunk died before the Civil War. He had at least 5 slaves born on his place, as recorded in his Family Bible, but it is not known how many he owned. The names of three adult females are found in the records of Limestone Methodist Church in 1842, which was called Kedron Meeting House at that time. Reference: "OLIVER - SISTRUNK FAMILIES Orangeburg Area South Carolina" by Georgie I. Adams Lefvendahl. Anne Leysath was the widow of James Leysath, b. May 19, 1800, d. Jul y 28, 1847.

e. Jacob SISTRUNK, born 1786; died 1841 in Marion County, Georgia.

f. Elizabeth SISTRUNK.

g. Joel SISTRUNK, born 25 Dec 1797 in South Carolina; died 1849 in Alabama. He married (1) on 8 Feb 1821 in Orangeburg County, South Carolina Mary MOORER, born 4 May 1800; died 4 Dec

1830, daughter of John R. MOORER (SR) and Anna Margaret STROMAN; (2) on 3 Nov 1831 Susannah MURRAY, born 11 Feb 1810; died 1884 in Society Hill, Alabama, daughter of William MURRAY and Mary HUGHES. At least as late as 1833 he was a county surveyor for Orangeburg, but he does not appear in the SC 1840 census.

h. Mary Magdaline SISTRUNK, born 1802 in Lexington, South Carolina; died 1853 in Fairfield District, South Carolina. She married (1) on 12 Jun 1821 in South Carolina John B. BOOKMAN, born 1798 in Richland County, South Carolina; died Apr 1824 in Fairfield District, South Carolina, son of Samuel BOOKMAN (SR) and Jemima RAINEY; (2) bef. 1832 in Lexington, South Carolina Henry BAUKNIGHT. John B. BOOKMAN's brother Jacob Oscar Bookman named administrator of estate on 19 April 1824. He was a carpenter and blacksmith. Final settlement took place on 8 Dec 1832.

Migration of the John H. SMITH and Sarah R. HENDRICK Family

1. John H. SMITH, born 31 Mar 1796 in Richland County, South Carolina; died 13 Jul 1866 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia, son of Stephen SMITH (JR) and Mary Eve HAMITER. He married in 1824 in Fairfield County, South Carolina to Sarah R. HENDRICK, born 1806 in South Carolina; died in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia.

   Notes for John H. SMITH: John H. Smith and wife Sarah Hendrix lived in the old Smith place on Cedar Creek for awhile after their marriage in Fairfield County in 1824 but later moved to Georgia. That he was a skilled carpenter is attested to by the fact that he made the coffin for his uncle Adam Frederick Hamiter in 1822. A Mrs. Smith, not further identified, served as midwife for the Adam Frederick Hamiter family and was paid $3.00 - presumably for delivery of a slave. In 1850 John was 54 years old and living in Richland County, South Carolina. He was living with his wife Sarah 44 years old and his children; Daniel 19 years old, Mary 16 years old, John 11 years old, and Sarah 6 years old. John's occupation was planter with a real estate value of $3000.00. In 1860 John was 64 years old and living in Beer Creek, Henry County, Georgia. He was living with his wife Sarah 54 years old and his daughter Sarah 15 years old. Also living in the household was his mother-in-law Susan Hendrick 84 years old. John was a farmer with a real estate value of $5500.00 and a personal property value of $13,900.00.

   Children of John H. SMITH and Sarah R. HENDRICK were as follows:

   a. George SMITH. George died at about 20 years old.

   b. Jesse SMITH. Jesse married in Georgia and was killed in the Civil War.

   c. Daniel A. SMITH, born 1831 in Richland County, South Carolina. He married Arinthia WOODSWORTH.

   d. Mary A. SMITH, born 1834 in Richland County, South Carolina. She married (1) [--] DEAS; (2) [--] TODD; (3) [--] MAGGARD.

   e. John Wesley SMITH, born 1839 in Richland County, South Carolina. John was killed in the Civil War.

   f. Sarah Nancy SMITH, born 1844 in Richland County, South Carolina. She married [--] HATHCOCK.

Migration of the Hans Hanil WALTERS and Anna Catherine DUSSEIGN Family

1. Hans Hanil WALTERS, born abt. 1730 in Switzerland; died bef. 1794 in Burke County, Georgia, son of Hans WALTER and Mary [--]. He married abt. 1767 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia to Anna Catherine DUSSEIGN, born abt. 1750 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia; died aft. 1806 in Screven County, Georgia, daughter of Jacob DUSSEIGN.

   Notes for Hans Hanil WALTERS: Hans Walter Junr. went to Georgia 1761 and only one of his children was baptized in the Ebenezer Church of the Salzburgers. Name was Anglicized to Walters about 30 years after Hans went to Georgia and after his death. Hans Walter of Four Holes Swamp, planter, sold 300 acres to Henry Felder on 14 Dec 1761. REF: Chasn ZZ215. Drafted into the Berkley County Detachment under the command of Captain Benjamin Elliot, Lt. William Sanders, and Ensign Elias Vanderhorst for the Expedition to Fort Prince George on 8 November 1759. Discharged on 8 January 1760 at the Congaree River after serving 62 days. Hans Walter Junr. petitioned for land in Georgia in 1762 and settled in Halifax which became St. George's Parish and in 1777 Burke County, GA. In 1793, when Screven County was formed this land was taken into the new county. Name appears as John Hanil Waters in GA. Oct. 1764 John Hanil Waters petition to Colonial Government of Georgia stating that he had been two years in the Province. Petitioned again in Oct. 1767. Granted in Hallifax District in 1768. Signed promissory note endorsing the indebtedness of his brother, Hance Blaze Walter, on 4 July 1761. It will be seen that as late as 1787 John Waters was still called Hance/Hans when a survey was made for additional land. In the grant itself, he was John Hanil Waters. This is very significant in establishing his identity as Hans Walter, Jr., from South Carolina. Surveyed 25 Nov 1786, granted 8 August 1787.

Children of Hans Hanil WALTERS and Anna Catherine DUSSEIGN were as follows:

a. Warton WALTERS, born 1768 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia.

b. Mary WALTERS, born 17 Jan 1770 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia; died 15 Jun 1838 in Effingham County, Georgia. She married (1) Benjamin REISER, died bef. 1793; (2) on 4 Nov 1794 to David METZGER, born 15 Jan 1770 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia; died 26 Jul 1840 in Effingham County, Georgia.

c. Margaret WALTERS, born 10 Jul 1771 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia. Ebenzer baptismal record book. "Margaret, daughter of John Walter in Halifax and his wife, Anna Catharin, was born July 10, 1771 and baptized November 18, 1771. Sponsors were John Nichol. Schubtrein and his wife."

d. David WALTERS, born abt. 1774 in St. George Parish, Effingham County, Georgia; died Dec 1830. He married abt. 1804 to Rebecca [--], born abt. 1780; died 8 Dec 1835 in Decatur, Georgia.

e. George WALTERS, born 1778 in Burke County, Georgia; died 14 Apr 1854 in Dale County, Alabama. He married on 8 Apr 1814 Abba MILLS, died 25 Feb 1880 in Dale County, Alabama.

f. Catharine WALTERS, born abt. 1781 in Burke County, Georgia. She married on 14 Apr 1806 in Screven County, Georgia Thomas PENGREE, son of [--] PENGREE.

g. Michael WALTERS, born 21 Jun 1786 in Burke County, Georgia; died abt. 1865 in Screven County, Georgia. He married (1) Elizabeth PENGREE, daughter of [--] PENGREE ; (2) on 30 Dec 1823 to Mary Dolly BOLTON.

Migration of the William YAUN Family

1. William YAUN, born abt. 1775 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died aft. 1860 in Telfair County, Georgia, son of Simon YONN (SR). He married (1) [--] [--]; (2) Anne FRIDAY, daughter of David FRIDAY and Elizabeth HOGABOOK.

   Notes for William YAUN: A William Yonn (probably this William) married Ann Friday (wid. of Henry Salley, Junr.) abt. 1805 in East Florida. The following information is taken from a marriage certificate "Henry Salley, Junior and Ann Friday were married in East Florida May 5th 1784 (at the time of this marriage Henry Salley, Jr., would have been 61 years of age). At the time of his last child's birth, Henry Salley, Junior would have been 74 years old. After Henry Salley, Jr., death in 1804, his widow, Ann Friday Salley, married William Yon who was many years younger than she. There was no issue from this marriage. The children of her first marriage were so much opposed to her second marriage that they would have nothing to do with their step-father and refused to accept a considerable amount of property which he had secured through his marriage to their mother. His efforts at a reconciliation with these children were not successful. As a result they failed to get any of their mother's land (this land was probably land that she inherited from her family)." A copy of Henry Salley's will dated 25 Nov 1802 where wife Ann receives plantation (300 acres), cattle, horse and negro wench named Venus and then to two youngest sons John and Daniel (not of age). On 7 May 1839 Feadrick Lajounner receives custody from William Yon of thirteen negroes and their increase, viz: Venus, Punck, Patt, Laurence, Handy, Juliet, Landy, Cain, Sary, Frank, Mary, Caroline and Harriet. They being the said Venus and her increase and descendants since division of the estate of Henry Salley. Negroes for the use and benefit of the heirs of Henry Salley, dec'd. [REF: Youn Family Papers, South Caroliniana Library, University of South Carolina.]

Migration of the John YAWN Family

1. John YAWN, born abt. 1770, son of John YONN (SR). He married unknown.

   Notes for John YAWN: The Yawn name in general has been found in Decatur County are since the 1820's. In the 1830 US census the following Yawns were living in Decatur County GA: John Yawn, 1 male 15-20, 1 male 50-60, 1 female 10-15, 1 female 15-20, and 1 female 40-50; Patrick Yawn, 1 male 20-30, 1 female 10-15, 1 female 15-20, and one female 60-70; Martin Yawn, 3 males under 5, 1 male 20-30, 1 female 20-30; Isaac, 1 male under 5, 1 male 5-10, 1 male 20-30, 1 male 40-50, 1 female under 5, 1 female 5-10, 2 females 10-15, 1 female 15-20, 1 female 30-40. John Yaun was their father, though no proof of their kinshp has been found to this date. Isaac Yawn (b.1824, GA) was most likely a son of the Isaac Yawn listed in this census, given that he would be about six years old and fall into the "male 5-10" range. Most descendants of Patrick Yawn remained in Decatur County, while descendants of the others settled in southeast Alabama, the Florida panhandle, and further west. In most of these families, it is common to hear stories of Yawn ancestors who married Creek Indian brides.

   Children of John YAWN were as follows:

   a. Isaac YAWN, born abt. 1790. He married Delilah [--].

      Notes for Isaac YAWN: Some early Yawn marriages in Decatur County, GA Martin Yaun and Jan Ard - Nov 17, 1825; Elizabeth Yawn and Eli Godwin Jan 17, 1828; John Yawn and Delany Bolton Dec 7, 1828; Elizabeth Yawn and Alexander Godwin Dec 7, 1828; Patrick Yawn and Leah Taylor Jun 11, 1829; Curey Yaun and Mark Porter Dec 8, 1832; Nancy Yawn and Littleton D. Glass Feb 15, 1834; Henry A. Yawn and Sarah Hawthorn May 21, 1836; Greenberry Yawn and Rutha Bishop Jul 2, 1846. Henry's father is probably Isaac because there is one Isaac in Decauter GA 1840 near Henry the right age to be his father, that is just guessing. Isaac was born about 1780-90. He was in Orangeburg, SC 1820. Decatur, GA 1830-40.

   b. Martin YAWN, born abt. 1795. He married on 17 Nov 1825 in Decatur County, Georgia Jan ARD.

   c. Elwood Patrick YAWN, born abt. 1805; died 12 Jul 1891 in Climax, Decatur County, Georgia; buried in Yawn Cemetery, Climax, Decatur, Georgia. He married on 11 Jun 1829 in Decatur, Georgia Leah Emma TAYLOR, born 7 Oct 1815; died 17 Oct 1898 in Climax, Decatur County, Georgia; buried in Yawn Cemetery, Climax, Decatur, Georgia.

Notes for Elwood Patrick YAWN: The Yawn Cemetery is about six miles south of Climax, GA just north GA 262 Just across the field in a wooded area in front of the Laura Kelly home. Member of the Pisgeah Primitive Baptist Church. Farmer. 2nd Lieut. Harris County Ga. Nov 23, 1830. Ga. Archives M.R. 1829-1841 pg. 17. Mar 12, 1836 in Company of Cavalry under Capt. Jonathan C. ## Migration of the Jacob ZEIGLER and Mary Ann PENDARVIS Family

1. Jacob ZEIGLER, born 10 Aug 1782 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; died 28 Aug 1838 in Midway Community, Bamberg, South Carolina, son of Michael ZEIGLER and Martha PIQUOTT. He married on 6 Jan 1805 in South Carolina Mary Ann PENDARVIS, born 24 Jun 1791 in Fairfield County, South Carolina; died 7 Dec 1861 in Bamberg County, South Carolina, daughter of Joseph PENDARVIS and Anne SALLEY.

   Notes for Jacob ZEIGLER: Zeigler family Bible, Southern Genealogists Exchange Quarterly, Spring 1978, Vol. 19, pg. 85 indicates death 28 Aug 1838. Jacob had been going to school and living in Charleston and came to Bamberg about 1800. On 18 January 1806 Michael Zeigler deeded to Jacob Zeigler his right, claim, and title to "the within premises, having received consideration for the same."

   Notes for Mary Ann PENDARVIS: Zeigler family Bible, Southern Genealogists Exchange Quarterly, Spring 1978, Vol. 19, pg. 85. (see 1811 lawsuit in Court of Equity by Gideon Jennings against George and Mary Boutnight) After the death of her mother Ann Daniel and her older brother Nathaniel, came with their father, James, to the Orangeburg area where they are listed in the 1800 census. James purchased 7,000 acres of land near Orangeburg as an investment for his daughter Ann Daniel. In 1804 he deeded this land to Michael Zeigler, Jacob's father, in a trust for his daughter Ann Daniel. Ann, the wife of Jacob Zeigler, and the woman buried in the Felder-Zeigler Cemetery in Bamberg, SC is not Ann Daniel, but Ann Pendarvis. She was the daughter of Joseph Pendarvis and Anne Salley. Ann Daniel either never existed or died as a child. Ann Pendarvis Zeigler is mentioned in the court records concerning her grandfather Brand Pendarvis' estate as late as 1811. She is mentioned in her mother's 1827 will. She is alluded to in her sister Ursula's 1840 obituary.

Children of Jacob ZEIGLER and Mary Ann PENDARVIS were as follows:

a. Eliza Harriet ZEIGLER, born 13 Jan 1806 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; died 18 Jan 1806 in Bamberg County, South Carolina.

No know issue.

c. Mary Washington ZEIGLER, born 5 Mar 1809 in South Carolina; died 29 Oct 1892 in Bainbridge, Ga.; buried in Green Shade Cemetery Decatur County, Georgia. She married (1) on 20 Sep 1829 in Barnwell District, South Carolina. Daniel Jefferson BRUTON, born 14 Sep 1807 in Barnwell, South Carolina; died 21 Aug 1858 in Bainbridge, Ga.; buried in Green Shade Cemetery Decatur County, Ga., son of Aquilla BRUTON and Rebecca ODOM; (2) on 5 May 1864 William B. DUNLOP, born 1800.

   Notes for Mary Washington ZEIGLER: Zeigler family Bible, Southern Genealogists Exchange Quarterly, Spring 1978, Vol. 19, pg. 85. Soon after the marriage they moved to Florida, Key West, being one of the places. They lived there for several years then moved to Decatur County, Georgia, and in 1858 the came to Bainbridge. Mr. Bruton died that same year. Mary married again in 1864 to Mr. William B. Dunlop formerly of SC. Mr. Dunlop lived only a few years after their marriage. Mary was the mother of ten children several of which died at birth or in early childhood. Several small graves can be seen in the family plot in Green Shade Cemetery in Decatur County a few miles south of Bainbridge, Ga. Mary was a member of the Methodist Church. She and her husband Daniel Jefferson Bruton are buried at Green Shade Cemetery in the family plot. There is no known issue in the union between Mary Zeigler and William Dunlop.

d. William ZEIGLER, born 28 Dec 1810 in Barnwell, South Carolina; died 14 Jul 1881 in Lowndes County, Georgia; buried in Sunshine Plantation Family Cemetery, Lowndes County, Ga. He married (1) on 4 Apr 1830 Elizabeth T. HOWELL, born 21 Dec 1810 in Barnwell, South Carolina; died 16 May 1867 in Lowndes County, Georgia; buried in Sunshine Plantation Family Cemetery, Lowndes County, Ga.; (2) on 21 Oct 1874 Columbia SHELTON, born 15 Mar 1831.

   Notes for William ZEIGLER: William Zeigler and Elizabeth moved to Lowndes County, Ga. from Barnwell District SC about 1842. They settled near Clyattville, Ga. and named their plantation "Sunshine". Here they reared their family of eight children. Their home burned in later years, but the markers in the family burying grounds are still in view along the old Valdosta-Bellville road. William and Elizabeth are buried at "Sunshine" along with several of their children and grand-children. REF: Georgia DAR Historical Collections, pg. 383, William and Elizabeth Howell Zeigler, family Bible. There is no known issue in the union between Columbia Shelton and William Zeigler.

e. Ann Eliza ZEIGLER, born 28 Aug 1813 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; died 4 Apr 1817 in Bamberg County, South Carolina.

f. Martha Mildred ZEIGLER, born 2 Dec 1815 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; died 18 Jun 1858 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; buried in Felder-Zeigler Cemetery, Bamburg, South Carolina. She married (1) on 1 Jan 1832 Johannes WEISSINGER, born 20 Mar 1801; died 21 Dec 1843; buried in Felder-Zeigler Cemetery, Bamburg, South Carolina; (2) in 1846 in Bamberg County, South Carolina Henry HUTTO, born 1815 in Bamberg County, South Carolina; died 12 Apr 1865 in CSA, son of William HUTTO and Lucy MONTGOMERY. ## Migration of the Joseph ZEIGLER and Abigail LIGHTSEY Family

1. Joseph ZEIGLER, born 14 Apr 1787 in South Carolina; died 19 Feb 1860 in Echols County, Georgia; buried 1860 in Wayfare Cemetery, Echols County, Ga., son of Michael ZEIGLER and Martha PIQUOTT. He married on 12 May 1813 in South Carolina Abigail LIGHTSEY, born 12 Oct 1790 in Probably Colleton County, South Carolina; died 12 Jun 1876 in Florida; buried 1876 in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Dade City, Florida.

   Notes for Joseph ZEIGLER: Lived in Barnwell District SC until about 1845 and then moved to Lowndes County Georgia. In 1860 his widow was in Echols County, Georgia.

   Notes for Abigail LIGHTSEY: The 1860 Federal Census of Echols County, Georgia lists an Abigill Zieglor, Female, aged 59, born in South Carolina and her occupation as a seamstress. Her husband, Joseph, was not listed as he died in 1860 just prior to the Census being taken. After Joseph's death, Abegail move to Pasco County, FL. to stay with her daughter, Mrs. John G. Howell, where she remained until her death in 1876. She is buried in Mr. Zion Cemetery about two miles West of Dade City, FL.

   Children of Joseph ZEIGLER and Abigail LIGHTSEY were as follows:

   a. Martha Mae ZEIGLER, born 12 Oct 1814 in South Carolina; died 12 Dec 1861 in Echols County, Georgia; said to be buried in Macedonia Cemetery, Mayday, Ga. She married on 15 Jun 1829 in South Carolina Samuel LIGHTSEY, born 22 May 1806 in Colleton County, South Carolina; died 15 Sep 1878 in Echols County, Georgia; said to be buried in Macedonia Cemetery, Mayday, Ga., son of David LIGHTSEY and Mary [--].

Notes for Martha Mae ZEIGLER: It has been said that Martha and Samuel were buried at Macedonia Church Cemetery. Two attempts to locate these graves have been fruitless. Let it be noted that dad listed them there because of information given to him by the older members of our family. He was told that they are in unmarked graves. On page 379 of the new Chinkypin book they are listed as being buried there. In a recent trip to Macedonia, I found the grave of Rachel Howell, Samuel's second wife. The dates on the headstone match the dates found in dad's earlier book. I feel it safe to assume that this is Samuel's second wife. The middle name of Martha has been reported as "Mae" and "Mary". The new Chinkypin book gives her name as Mary Martha Zeigler, dau. of Joseph. In a book written by Patricia Lightsey Davis on the Lightsey family it is stated that a letter is on file at the Huxford Library that states her name is Mary Martha Zeigler. This information came from the only living grandchild of Samuel Lightsey and the letter is dated 1955.

[Author's note: Legal documents have been found which attest that Martha Zeigler Lightsey was buried in the Jesse Howell Berring Grounds. This document was signed by her brother John D. Zeigler and his wife Keizie. While nowhere did I find that Samuel was actually buried beside his first wife Martha I do not find him buried beside his second wife Rachel. It is my feeling that they are buried beside each other in the now abandoned cemetery once known as the Jesse Howell Berring Grounds. As written in the notes for Samuel, the local people have known of the existence of this cemetery. My cousin Emory Davis stated that he had played in this cemetery when he was a young boy. According to a booklet written by Betty Lane Clark of Atlanta, Georgia, the Jesse Howell homeplace was sold to Lovelyn Davis about 1900 and has been known as such ever since. Some of the locals with whom I have contacted have told me that they have heard of the Davis Cemetery which supposedly is the same as the Jesse Howell Cemetery. I will hold to this THEORY until further proof can be produced to the contrary. - Charles Zeigler]

Notes for Samuel LIGHTSEY: Samuel Lightsey (1806-1878) was born in Colleton District, South Carolina, with his brother Jacob, the two families moved to Lowndes County, Georgia in 1836. Samuel's first wife Martha Mae Zeigler (1814-1861) was a sister to John Darling Zeigler, who moved to Lowndes County with another sister in 1839. Martha died Dec. 12, 1861, and a few years later Samuel married Mrs. Rachel Howell, widow of William Howell of Echols County. Mrs. Howell was born May 1, 1816, in South Carolina, and died Oct. 2, 1892. Samuel Lightsey's children were born by the first wife. Samuel Lightsey was in the Indian War and served in Capt. Jessie Carter's Company of Lowndes County Militia July 1st to Aug. 15,1838; and in Capt. David R. Bryans Company of Lowndes County Militia, from Aug. 15, to Oct.

15,1838. His home was on the west side of the Alapaha River near present Howell Georgia. Mr Lightsey was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church for many Years as was also both of his wives. He died on Sept. 15, 1878, and was buried in the cemetery at Macedonia Church where his first wife was buried and where his second wife was later buried. Samuel was a Member of Alapaha Lodge, No. 209, F. & A.M., at Statenville, Georgia, and died a Member. The 1860 Federal Census of Echols County, Georgia lists Samuel Lightsey, born in South Carolina, as head of house with 6 children. A comparison of these dates show that it was the last 6 of his 11 children. The first 5 children had already married before 1855. Martha was not shown in this census.

OBITUARY OF MR. SAMUEL LIGHTSEY (transcribed from The Weekly Times, Valdosta, Georgia, dated October 19, 1878). "Mr. Samuel Lightsey, of Echols County, died a few weeks ago; and on last Thursday night week Mr. Frank Fender, Tax Collector, was stricken down and died on the following Sunday night. They were school boys together many years ago in South Carolina and they moved to this state in early manhood, where they lived and died neighbors in Echols County. They were aged and very highly respected citizens, both having borrowed time beyone their three score and ten. Each raised a large family of children, all of whom are married and settled in life and are worthy citizens." -G.W. Prine

[Author's note: The above information was found in the Huxford books. The grave of Samuel Lightsey has not been found. The grave of his second wife, Rachael Guest Rice Howell, was found in the cemetery. Certain legal documents have been found which indicate that Samuel Lightsey could have been buried with his first wife Martha at the Jesse Howell Berring Grounds located at Valentine, Georgia. That cemetery has long been abandoned but is known to have existed by the local people in the area. No trace of that cemetery is left. Please see the notes for Martha Mae Lightsey. I will hold to this THEORY until further proof can be submitted to the contrary. - Charles Zeigler]

b. Mary Catherine ZEIGLER, born 21 Dec 1815 in Barnwell District, South Carolina; died 10 May 1885 in Hernando, Fl.; buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Dade City, Fl. She married in 1837 John George HOWELL, born 18 Oct 1817 in Barnwell District, South Carolina; died 20 Apr 1885 in Dade City, Florida, Mt. Zion Cemetery; buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Dade City, Florida.

Notes for John George HOWELL: In Dec.1839, John G. moved to Lowndes County with his wife and child, following his Father there. He settled on a farm near his Father's, and in 1858 was cut out of Lowndes into the new County of Echols. Mr. Howell was 1st Lieut. of the Militia in the 904th District, Lowndes County(1851-1857). He was Justice of Peace in the same District (1856-1864), this District was placed in Echols County in its creation. He served as Sheriff of Echols County (1862-1864). Mr. Howell was a member of the Masonic Order, entering as a charter member into the organization of Alapha Lodge No. 209 at Troublesome (later named Statenville) in 1857. He served as Senior Deacon of his Lodge, (1858-1860), and was Worshipful Master, (1861-1865). He was also a lifelong Member of the Methodist Church. The 1860 Federal Census of Echols County, Georgia lists John E. (in lieu of G.) Howell as head of house with 6 children. In 1866, he sold out his holdings in Echols County and moved to Pasco County Fla. where he became a fruit grower and prospered. He died there in 1885, and his wife died soon after. They were buried at Mt. Zion Methodist Church about two miles West of Dade City, Florida where they were Members.

c. John Darling ZEIGLER, born 29 Mar 1820 in Barnwell District, South Carolina; died 14 Dec 1906 in Echols County, Georgia; buried in Unity Primitive Baptist Church Cem. Lowndes County, Ga. He married on 25 Jun 1847 in Echols County, Georgia Keziah CARTER, born 13 Nov 1831 in Georgia?; died 25 Dec 1894 in Echols County, Ga.; buried in Unity Primitive Baptist Church Cem. Lowndes County, Ga.

   Notes for John Darling ZEIGLER: John D. was cut out of Lowndes County into the new County of Echols in its Formation in 1858. He bought 400 acres in the 11th. land district, being part of land lot no. 443 in said district, this transaction took place on Aug. 13,1856, He later purchased the remainder of lot no. 443 and part of lot no. 444. These lands were later deeded to Charles Boland Zeigler the son of John D. Zeigler. He served as Justice of Peace in the 904th. Dist. of Echols, 1860-1864, and served as Representative from his County to the Ga. Legislature. John D. was for several years a member of the Masonic Order. He received his degree in 1859 in the Alapaha Lodge no. 209 at Statenville Ga., (known then as Troublesome). The Town was named Statesville and thru Postal error was listed as Statenville and the name was never changed. He served as Jr. Warden of the Lodge in 1861, Lodge Treasurer in 1869-1872, and as Jr. Deacon in 1870-1871. He was received into Unity Baptist Church (Primitive) July 25, 1874, and was Baptized; His wife was similarly received May 22,1875. He was Ordained a Deacon of the Church August 30, 1879, and served in that capacity until his death December 14,1906. John D. and Kizzie are buried in the church cemetery at Unity. John D. Zeigler served as a Private in the Georgia Militia in the Civil War, under Captain James W. Staten. This enlistment was for six months, August 4,1863 to February 15,1864. He served as Notary Public, and Exo. Justice of Peace of the 904th. District, Echols County from 1868 to 1874. John D. was born in Barnwell Dist. S. C. and came to Lowndes County in 1839 with his sister and brother-in-law, the John G. Howell's. John D. Zeigler's father came to Lowndes County in 1845, following his son and daughters there, also moving to Lowndes County about the same time were three of Joseph's Nephews, William Zeigler and Jacob Jefferson Zeigler sons of Jacob Zeigler, and Joseph Conrad Holman Zeigler, son of Conrad. The 1860 Federal Census of Echols County, Georgia lists John Zeiglor as head of house, a wife named Kurgie (Kizzie), and 7 children. John is a farmer.
