Notes for Mary GRESSETT: Mary Gressett is a sister to William Gressett, son of John Gressett, the Rev. War soldier. Their four known children: William Gressett, b. 1765-70; his [supposed] sister Lydia Gressett, b. 1765-1770; Elizabeth Gressett, b. 1771 who married James Grimes; and a John Gressett, b. abt. 1774. Mary would fit well into the family of (Col.) John Gressett and his wife Susanna Elisabetha Fontius [Funchess]. Mary Blackledge named a daughter Lydia and also used the names John, Elizabeth, and William is the best circumstantial evidence available. Mary and Zachariah moved to Jones Co. MS approx. 1818/20 and her sister Lydia Byrd went with them because her husband abandoned her and her children. He went to GA. Zachariah (or at least a Zachariah Blackledge) appears on the 1790 Orangeburgh Census with a Lydia Gressett listed near him.

Migration of the John Lewis DANTZLER and Elizabeth HORGER Family

1. John Lewis DANTZLER, born 15 Aug 1788 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 1852 in Perry County, Mississippi, son of Hans Jacob DANTZLER and Elizabeth Barbara CARN. He married Elizabeth HORGER, born 1792 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1869 in Perry County, Mississippi, daughter of John HORGER and Rachel SHULER.

Notes for John Lewis DANTZLER: Migrated to Wayne County, Mississippi abt. 1812. Settled on east side of the Leaf River opposite land bought by William and Mary (Gavin) Clayton. The DANTZLER brothers were not wealthy at the time but bought and sold timber land until they owned the southern half of the estate. Had to build their own railroad to ship their lumber to the coast for export. Built giant lumber processing mills all over. Because of their output, the MS Gulf Coast became the largest lumber shipping port in the world in the 1800s.

Children of John Lewis DANTZLER and Elizabeth HORGER were as follows:

- a. Avaline DANTZLER, born 25 Mar 1813 in Perry County, Mississippi; died 5 Apr 1889 in Lauderdale County, Mississippi, buried in the Clayton Cemetery. She married on 23 Mar 1830 in Perry County, Mississippi Charles Gavin CLAYTON, born 23 Dec 1808 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1 Sep 1857 in Lauderdale County, Mississippi, son of William Beverly CLAYTON and Mary GAVIN.

Migration of the Peter FELDER (SR) and Elizabeth LOWE Family

1. Peter FELDER (SR), born 2 Apr 1759 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 1848 in Pike County, Mississippi, son of Heinrich (Capt. Henry) FELDER (SR) and Mary Elizabeth SHAUMLOFFEL. He married abt. 1780 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina Elizabeth LOWE, born 7 May 1759 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died abt. 1840 in Pike County, Mississippi.

Notes for Peter FELDER (SR): 1759 On Sunday April 22 in Orangeb. Church. Peter, son of Henry and Mary Elizabeth Felder; born April 2, 1759. Suret: John and Barbara Giessendanner, Jacob Giessendanner. (Rev. Giessendanner). Moved to Mississippi in 1810-1811 Peter Felder, coming from Orangeburgh in 1810 divided his family. His son, John, and others came directly over land to then Amite County, Mississippi. Peter himself went to the Tennessee River and rafted to the Ohio, then down the Mississippi River to Natchez where John met him. John and his brothers brought the stock (mainly horses) overland, while his father and mother came by boat. After arriving in Mississippi in an area not too far from Magnolia in 1810, John left the stock near Magnolia and went on to Natchez where the old couple was to have landed. Upon his arrival, he was very distress as not finding his parents there; a delay caused by the slowness of the vessel on which they were passengers. After a week's delay, the boat arrived and the Felders enjoyed a reunion. They traveled on to Magnolia and established a permanent homesite. Peter Felder first settled in Amite County, but lived his last years in Pike County. Peter Felder settled the Vaughn place, near Magnolia, in 1811. A Methodist Church was established in this neighborhood, and in 1810 the first Methodist camp meeting was held here. It was afterwards known as Felder's Campground.

Children of Peter FELDER (SR) and Elizabeth LOWE were as follows:

- a. Gabriel FELDER, born abt. 1780 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died in Amite County, Mississippi.
- b. Henry David FELDER, born 29 Aug 1781 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 1 Oct 1842 in Livingston Parish, Louisiana. He married on 17 Jun 1819 in Amite County, Mississippi Jane MCMORRIS, born 4 Sep 1795 in South Carolina; died 9 Nov 1882 in Port Vincent, Livingston Parish, Louisiana, daughter of Alexander MCMORRIS and Elizabeth BAXTER.

Notes for Henry David FELDER: Some researchers put as son of Henry Felder (1771-1807) and Ann. Buried abandoned cemetery on Felder Bayou off Hovd Road, Livingston Parish, Louisiana.

Notes for Jane MCMORRIS: Jane was the daughter of Alexander McMorris and Elizabeth Baxter. Some spell McMorris and some spell McMorries. Alexander McMorris was the son of William McMorris and Jane Donovan. Buried Felder cemetery LA Hwy 16 north of Port Vincent.

- c. Charles FELDER, born 1783 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 15 May 1843. He married Sarah LEA.

Notes for Charles FELDER: Baptist preacher in Amite County, Mississippi.

- d. Peter FELDER (JR), born 1787 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 12 May 1848 in Pike County, Mississippi. He married on 31 May 1813 Malinda LOWE, died in Mississippi.

Notes for Peter FELDER (JR): Peter Felder, with his wife, Lydia Lowe, and their ten children moved from Orangeburgh District, South Carolina, in 1811, first settling near the site of Magnolia, Mississippi. A Methodist Church was established in this neighborhood, and in 1810 the first Methodist camp meeting was held there. It was afterwards known as Felder's Church. Peter was appointed by the Governor as one of the commissioners, under acts of 9 Dec 1815, to select, procure and fix the permanent seat of justice of Pike Co. In 1840 he settled on a farm in Topisaw and with Christian Hoover, Hardy Thompson, David Winborne, Matthew McEwen, Samuel Whitworth, Archie McEwen and Silas Catchings establishing the Topisaw Camp Grounds in 1843. In 1846 he had a water mill constructed over Topisaw, an upright saw, grist and cotton gin near the camp grounds. The migration to the Mississippi Territory in the early 1800's brought Peter Felder, the son of Henry Felder, from the Barnwell

District, SC. In 1811 he settled on what is known as the Vaughn place near Magnolia. About 1780 he married Elizabeth Lowe. Peter Felder soon assisted in establishing a church in this community known as Felder's Church. He was one of the commissioners appointed by the government under acts of December 9, 1815 to select, procure, and fix a permanent seat of justice of the Orphan's Court which had jurisdiction in probate matters. Peter Felder's sons were Charles, who became a physician and moved to Amite Co.; Peter Jr. a farmer of much wealth; Isaac who never married but devoted his time principally to agricultural pursuits; Daniel who moved to Texas and John. The daughters were Mrs. Nancy Winborne, Mrs. James Sibley who moved to Texas, Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Mrs. Maria Carter, and Mrs. Kessiah Rawls. John Felder then, son of Peter Felder, is the ancestor of the Felder's of Pike Co. He was born in Barnwell District, SC in 1793, moving with his father to Mississippi in 1811. In 1812 he married Miss Elizabeth Sandell. Twenty years later John Felder and his wife settled on the beautiful little stream Topisaw, nine miles from MaComb. He and other people living nearby, assembled in a beautiful grove to hold religious services. Later a church was built and now called Felder Methodist Church. The land was given by John Felder to build the church and tabernacle. His picture hangs in the church there. John and Elizabeth Felder were parents of Mary Catherine, born 23 Sep 1813 who married Seaborn Alford; Elizabeth born 2 Feb 1818, married Tom McEwen; Wyatt Westley born 15 May 1815, married Cynthia Hope; Gabriel Nolly born 25 Mar 1820, married Fanny Hodges; Robert Henry born 9 Oct 1824, married Elizabeth Thompson; Levi Darius born 22 Sep 1822, married Martha Williams; Simeon Noble born 23 Feb 1827, married Mrs. Mary Buie; Minerva Felder born 6 Jun 1828, died 1924, married Monroe McEwen. John Felder died in 1876, and was buried near the Camp Ground in the family cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. H.L. Johnson, President of Whitworth College, who paid a touching tribute to his life. A copy of this eulogy was published in the local paper and was also placed in the corner stone of the old courthouse in Pike Co. When that building was razed a number of years ago, the paper was removed and sent to a member of the family. It is now in the possession of the Felders who prize it very highly. Saturday, November 27, 1943 issue of the McComb, Mississippi Daily Enterprise. Charles Felder, son of Peter Felder, Sr., became a physician and moved to Amite Co. He married Miss Sarah Lea who died January 31, 1843. Charles Felder died 15 May 1843. He was a pioneer preacher in Mississippi and Louisiana and was an active co-laborer with Cooper, Reeves, Courtney and others in South Mississippi; was often moderator of the Mississippi Association. The abstract history of the Mississippi Baptist Assoc. has this to say about Charles Felder: The Association committee selected to prepare a suitable obituary for the minutes, was composed of Elders J.B. Smith, Ezra Courtney and Thomas M. Bond. In their report they say: "It has pleased an all-wise Providence to remove, since our last meeting, our beloved brother and moderator, C. Felder, who was in the 60th year of his age, and who has been thirty-four years a preacher, twenty-four of that time he has lived in this association. He was a sound consistent and able minister of the New Testament. As a pastor he has been surpassed by none in our country, as an evangelist and revivalist, few exceeded him. His Christian deportment and soundness in the faith, connected with his indefatigable labors for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom, his making and preserving peace in the denomination, with all men, have embalmed his memory with undying esteem." A Quote says: In life they were lovely and pleasant, and in their death they were not long divided." They made their home in the East Fork (MS) community and are buried there. Charles and Sarah Lea Felder had nine children. James W. who married Maria Marsalis; Charles F.; William Riley; Rebecca, who married Thomas M. Bond; Nancy Ann, who married Thomas Everett; Sarah, who married Francis Wigley; Malinda who married Henry Barron; Eleanor, who married James Brabham, and Elizabeth, who married John Everett. Of their children, Charles F. and William Riley were physicians. Charles F. Felder married four times. His first wife was Ann O'Neal whom he married in Jan. 1838, and whom he had three children C.C., A.G., and D.C. Felder. His second wife was Mrs. Mary Ann Garner Raborn, widow of George Raborn and mother of two children, and widow of John Sibley by whom she had a daughter. Charles F. Felder's third wife was Malissa Jane Lea, by whom he had one child, A.D. Felder. The fourth wife was Mrs. Lenora J. Frith Bates. Charles Felder died in 1875 on his way to Texas. Lenora came back to Amite Co. and is buried there. Dr. Felder and his wife, Ann O'Neal, had three children – Christopher Columbus, A. G. Felder, and D.C. Felder. Columbus as he was called, married in 1860, Talitha Varnado, daughter of Isham and Margaret Hope Varnado. Albert G. Felder, a Baptist minister, married Louisa Williams on 8 Feb 1866. They were the parents of nine children. Dewitt C. Felder married on 28 Oct 1868 to Miss A.E. Bates (full name unknown). Dr. Felder and his second wife had no children. Mary Ann Raborn Sibley had three children by her two previous marriages, and Dr. Felder had three. By his marriage to Malissa Jane Lea he had another son, A.D. Felder, who was born 27 Jul 1861. He became a physician, having graduated from Louisville Medical College in Louisville, KY in the spring of 1885. In Nov of 1886 he married Miss Ada Lenore. They moved from Amite Co. to Magnolia, MS in Jan of 1890, where he built up a large and lucrative practice. (See page 278, Vol I, Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Mississippi) Dr. Felder's fourth and last marriage, to Lenora Bates, produced no children. In an effort to improve his health, it was his intention to move to a drier climate. They set out for Texas but never reached their destination. After his death, she returned to Amite Co. and died there. Christopher Columbus Felder, born 20 Aug 1840, died 20 Nov 1924 at the age of 84, married in 1860, Talitha Angeline Varnado. She was born 3 Oct 1840 and died 24 Apr 1897. Both of them are buried in the Varnado Cemetery in Osyka, MS. His grave has a marker with the following inscription: Felder, C.C., Corp. Co.B, 33rd Miss. Inf. CSA. There are no dates on the stone. Talitha died 27 years before her husband. In his later years he went to live with his son, Robert H. (Bob) Felder in East Fork Community near Kentwood, LA. Their Children were: Annie P. who married William Benjamine Franklin Lewis (Billy) on 23 Dec 1879; Monroe Felder who married Maggie Emma Dykes on 23 Dec 1889; Margaret H. (Mag) Felder who married George A. Dickey on 16 Jan 1899; Arie Quinnie Felder who married George Felix Dykes on 23 Dec 1889; Robert H. Felder who married Sareptha

Cutrer on 15 Jan 1902; Alice H. Felder who married Joseph A. Bennet on 16 Jan 1899; James (Jimmy) Felder who died young and Esther E. who also died young. Annie and Billy Lewis had Hollis, Lennie, Grover C., Mamie and Katie Lewis. Only Grover and Katie grew to maturity. Charlie and Maggie Felder had Alva, Edward, Lelia, Celeste, Johnnie, Major, Clayton, Kermit, Auburn and Monte Felder. Margaret Felder and George Dickey had Homer Bates, Hoyt, Georgia, and Charles Woodrow. Arie and George Felix Dykes had Alma, Brosia, Leo, Van, Herman, Jerdie, Ronnie, James, and Leroy. Robert and Sareptha Felder had Ruth, Jack, Jessie, Ann, and Lelia. Alice and Joe Bennett had Lousia, Lena, William and Norris. Their first child, a boy, died young.

- e. Nancy Ann FELDER, born 1790 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 16 Aug 1850. She married on 13 Jul 1813 in Marion County, Mississippi David WINBORNE.
- f. John Henry FELDER, born 27 May 1793 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 20 Dec 1875 in Pike County, Mississippi. He married (1) on 15 Oct 1812 in Amite County, Mississippi Elizabeth SANDEL, born 17 Jun 1794 in South Carolina; died 18 May 1848 in Amite County, Mississippi, daughter of Henry SANDEL and Catherine NOBLES; (2) on 12 Jun 1849 Patience Simmons ALLEN, born 1809; (3) on 19 Jul 1855 Martha Stanfill DOUGLAS, died in Mississippi.

Notes for John Henry FELDER: War of 1812 He served as a private in Captain Quin's unit of the Mississippi Militia (enlisted in New Orleans 6 Jan 1815 and was mustered out on 5 Feb 1815). In 1812 John went through a conversion experience with the Methodist at a camp meeting held about where Magnolia sits today. From that date until his death, he was a strong and devout Methodist and thereby established a strong Methodist family thereafter. About 1830 John moved his family to land on the Topisaw, a location where he spent the last 45 years of his life. Obituary notices published in the New Orleans Christian - Advocate, the Methodist organ.

Notes for Patience Simmons ALLEN: Widow. One child by Felder.

Notes for Martha Stanfill DOUGLAS: Widow. No children by Felder.

- i. Isaac FELDER, born 9 Jan 1800 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 9 Sep 1853 in Pike County, Mississippi. Isaac Felder Cem- 1 1/2 miles S of Magnolia and 1/2 miles E of Little Tangipahoa River MS. Cemetery Almost lost located in a pasture at the edge of a farm building, cattle have access to cemetery. Appears to have been several graves as bricks are scattered over a sizable area. Peter Felder settled the Vaughn place, near Magnolia, in 1811. A Methodist Church was established in this neighborhood, and in 1810 the first Methodist camp meeting was held here. It was afterwards known as Felder's Campground. Isaac Felder was never married. Thus this gives rise to the speculation that this cemetery may have been the Peter Felder, Sr. Cemetery and it may have been at or near the site of the First Methodist Church in this area.

Migration of the William GRESSETT and Rachel RADCLIFFE Family

1. William GRESSETT, born abt. 1765 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 1850 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina, son of John GRESSETT (COL) and Susanna Elisabetha FUNCHES. He married (1) Catherine GAVIN, born abt. 1773 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died abt. 1813 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; buried in Cattle Creek, Orangeburgh, South Carolina, daughter of Charles GAVIN and Bathiah BYRD; (2) in 1813 in South Carolina Rachel RADCLIFFE, born 1795; died 1837.

Notes for William GRESSETT: Witness to will of Thomas Gavin, of Colleton District 14 March 1811. Five land grants are recorded in the name of William Gressett or Grissett for land in Orangeburg District, all in the same area, first 7 April 1788 and the last 2 August 1819. No record shows the name of the first wife of William Gressett, but there are clues. An account by Major David Gavin of a visit to relatives in Mississippi refers to his cousin Charles Gressett of Lauderdale County (25 June 1843), and this relationship is confirmed by a reference in his diary: "My paternal grandfather Charles Gavin, paternal Aunt Gressett and other relatives are buried on Cattles Creek in Orange Parish. Cattle Creek was the location of the first land grant to William Gressett. A conclusion may be drawn that the wife of William Gressett was the sister of Major Gavin's father and thus the daughter of Charles and Bathiah (Byrd) Gavin, early settlers in the same area. Charles Gressett apparently bore the middle initial G., from Gavin, as did his nephew, a son of William, and that a daughter of Catherine (Gressett) Tatum, a sister of William Jr. and thus a daughter of William Sr., bore the name Catherine Gavin Tatum is evidence of this connection. The Gavin family is enumerated near that of Lydia and William Gressett in 1800 and 1810 as is that of Christopher Tatum in 1820. While Christopher Tatum, Bathyra for Fathiah Gavin, and William Gressett are enumerated on the same page of the 1830 census for Greene County, Miss.

Children of William GRESSETT and Catherine GAVIN were as follows:

- a. Catherine GRESSETT, born 1797 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died aft. 1880 in Jasper County, Mississippi. She married abt. 1818 Christopher TATUM, born 5 Feb 1795 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 14 Dec 1870 in Jasper County, Mississippi, son of Christopher TATUM. Christopher with his brother Joshua went to Autauga - Montgomery Cos., AL about 1817. They then migrated onward to Mississippi about 1830 and settled in neighboring Cos. of Jasper and Newton, MS. Both mentioned in David Gavin diary.
- b. Bethiah Elizabeth GRESSETT, born 17 Jan 1799 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 7 Aug 1887 in Jasper County, Mississippi. She married John D. RATCLIFF, born 25 Sep 1796 in South Carolina; died 12 Oct 1863 in Jasper County, Mississippi. BL1997 does not list as child?
- c. William GRESSETT, born 1801 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died abt. 1875 in Lauderdale County, Mississippi. He married (1) Cynthia [--]; (2) on 3 Apr 1865 in South Carolina Martha BUSH. He was in Greene County, Miss. by 1827, and with a woman of his own age and a male child under 5, census 1830. A resident of Jone Co., Miss by 9 June 1836, when he purchased 50 acres and on census 13 April 1837, with his wife and 4 males under 18, in 1841 had 8 whites in household. In 1840 a woman of this own age, a woman 80-90 [Bathiah Gavin?] He has been identified as Catherine's brother
- d. Susan Elizabeth GRESSETT, born abt. 1809 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1877. She married Vincent REEVES.
- e. Charles Gavin GRESSETT, born 1810 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died in Grimes County, Texas. He married (1) [--] RYAN; (2) Elizabeth Mary ROBERTSON, born 12 Feb 1823 in Mississippi; died 26 Dec 1912 in Texas. He was in Perry County, Mississippi by 2 Nov 1835, tax lists of Jasper Co., 1837-39. In Lauderdale County, MS in 1840 (age 20-30) with 3 females, by 1850 in Newton Co., MS.

Children of William GRESSETT and Rachel RADCLIFFE were as follows:

- f. John Daniel GRESSETT, born 11 Jan 1818 in South Carolina; died 16 Jan 1901. He married Nancy Elizabeth MABRY in 1839. Civil War pension records enlisted in a Louisiana regiment. He moved to Texas following the war and eventually settled and died in Comanche County, Texas. He applied for his Civil War Pension through the State of Texas at the end of the last century when he was 81 years old.
- g. Samuel Ratcliff GRESSETT, born abt. 1826; died 27 May 1850 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina.
- h. Laurence Funchess GRESSETT, born abt. 1828; died 10 Feb 1892 in Branchville, Orangeburg Co., South Carolina. She married Umia [--].

- i. Tatum GRESSETT, born 13 Mar 1831 in Reevesville, South Carolina; died 22 Jul 1864 in Atlanta, Fulton Co., Georgia. He married Caroline REEVES.
- j. Marion Shieutt GRESSETT, born abt. 1833; died 19 May 1908. He married (1) Isabel Margaret OTT; (2) Maggie HALFORD .

Migration of the John McCover HOOVER and Mary RUMPH Family

1. John McCover HOOVER, died 31 Jan 1832, son of Joseph HUBER. He married abt. 1770 Mary RUMPH, daughter of Peter RUMPH and Catherine KNORE. This may be his son John? (1747-1802).

Children of John McCover HOOVER and Mary RUMPH were as follows:

- a. Joseph Samuel HOOVER, born abt. 1770; died abt. 1817. Three sons of John went to Mississippi; Joseph (Samuel), Christian and Charles Hoover. Land patent 22 Sep 1817, Pike County, Mississippi.

- b. Christian HOOVER, born 1772 in South Carolina; died 1815 in Lawrence Co., Georgia. He married (1) [--] HOOK; (2) in 1808 in South Carolina Elizabeth ZEIGLER, born abt. 1795 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 26 Oct 1846 in Holmes County, Mississippi, daughter of J. ZEIGLER and C. [--]. Christian Hoover must have deceased in 1815 while living on Sweetwater Creek. Elizabeth ZEIGLER with her four younger Hoover children and her new husband (Brittian Smith) she moved to Holmes Co., MS after 1820.
- c. Jerushia McCover HOOVER, born abt. 1785 in Swansea, Lexington Co., South Carolina; died 7 Jan 1818 in Swansea, Lexington Co., South Carolina. She married in 1805 in Orangeburg County, South Carolina Elijah JEFFCOAT, born 11 Mar 1782 in Lexington, South Carolina; died 23 Sep 1857 in Pike County, Alabama; buried in Campground Meth., Portsburg, Crenshaw Co., Alabama, son of Samuel JEFFCOAT and Zelphir [--]. Jerushia McCover HOOVER, a Creek Indian from the Wind Clan. This couple migrated to Alabama ca. 1846. [REF: "SC Indians Indian Traders and other ethnic connections beginning in 1670" by Theresa M. Hicks, 1998.] Enumeration of Indians - a good example of this is the Hoover / Martin / Jeffcoat families of Lexington Co., SC. John Hoover (1750/60 - 1832) was enumerated as White. Elijah Jeffcoat was listed in 1800 as non-White. Jeffcoat's wife was John Hoover's daughter, Jerusha. The Martin family is sometimes listed as White and sometimes as non-White. John Hoover's second wife was the widow of John J. Martin. The issue is further complicated by the fact that some of the Hoover children also went by the name of Martin. Sometimes the status of the husband seems to change from White to non-White depending on the status of the wife. pg. 331.
- d. Charles HOOVER, born 20 May 1788 in South Carolina; died 19 Feb 1849 in Lawrence Co., Georgia. Migration of the John HORGER and Rachel SHULER Family

1. John HORGER, born 28 Oct 1758 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina and died 13 Aug 1821 in Greene County, Mississippi. He was the son of Jacob HORGER (SR) and Lovisia SHAUMLOFFEL. John HORGER married Rachel SHULER, born abt. 1766 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 29 October 1849 in Greene County, Mississippi having married for the second time in 1824 to Major Martin MOODY following the death of her first husband, John HORGER. She was the daughter of Georg Nickel SHULER and Rachel [unknown].

John and Rachel HORGER and their minor children removed to Mississippi abt. 1812 settling into that portion of Greene County, that would later become Perry County. He is found in the 1816 Mississippi State and Territorial Census of Greene County with a household of 4 and 20 enslaved persons. Land records and property sale evidence, suggests their older married daughters and their families, other siblings, and some nieces with their families later joined them where they are found in the 1820 U.S. Federal Census of Greene County.

Children of John HORGER and Rachel SHULER were as follows:

- a. Margaret HORGER, born 19 Apr 1785 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 19 Jul 1853 in Noxubee, Mississippi. She married on 13 Jan 1803 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina to Charles GAVIN (JR), born 15 Jul 1775 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina; died 18 Mar 1824 in Cliftonville, Noxabee Co., Mississippi, son of Charles GAVIN and Bathiah BYRD. They had eleven known children together.

[Research Note A: Charles and Margaret Gavin moved from South Carolina to Mississippi about 1817. Records of Perry County, MS Vol. 1, 1820-1830 Tax Rolls show Margaret Gavin with 160 acres and 23 slaves in 1829. The 1830 Noxubee County Census shows Margaret was in Perry County; owned property in 1848. Noxubee Co., MS 1850 census shows Margaret 66 yrs, Allen 38 yrs, Gabriel 32 yrs, Alfred 30 yrs.]

- b. Mary HORGER, born in Orangeburg District, South Carolina, though she was known as "Polly." She married David REECE [REESE]. He was born in South Carolina where he and Polly HORGER were likely married. They came to Mississippi and first settled in Greene County as early as 1817. David REESE purchased more than 580 acres in that portion of what was to become Perry County in 1820 and raised a large family. As the Choctaw Indian Nation ceded their lands to the U.S. Government, David REESE purchased several tracts of land in the newly formed Oktibbeha County, Mississippi where the family eventually settled by 1836. David REESE and Polly HORGER had ten known children.
- c. Elizabeth HORGER, born 1792 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1869 likely in Greene County, Mississippi. She married John Lewis DANTZLER, born 15 Aug 1788 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 17 Aug 1852 in Greene County, Mississippi, son of Hans Jacob DANTZLER and Elizabeth Barbara CARN. He and his family migrated to Greene/Perry County, Mississippi with John HORGER about 1812 and would co-purchase property in that portion of Greene County that would later become Perry. He purchased additional property and eventually settled in Greene County on east side of the Leaf River opposite land bought by William and Mary (Gavin) Clayton. John L. DANTZLER and Elizabeth HORGER had six children.
- d. Absalom HORGER, born in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died in January 1868 in Harrison County, Mississippi. He married Elizabeth WHITHERSPOON on 14 Feb 1822 in Amite County, Mississippi. She was born about 1807 in South Carolina. They had four known children together.

Absalom HORGER came to Mississippi with his parents, and by 1820 he was the head of their household in 1820 according to the Greene County U.S. Census. He later removed to Copiah County eventually settling in Holmes County, Mississippi where he raised his family. By the time of his death, he had retired to the coast in Harrison County, Mississippi.

- e. Ann HORGER, born abt. 1800 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 19 Oct 1863 in Washington Co., Texas. She married abt. 1819, likely in Greene County, Mississippi, to her first-cousin, Gabriel FELDER the son of Samuel FELDER and Ann HORGER the daughter of Jacob HORGER(SR) and Lovisia SCHAUMLOEFFEL. Gabriel Felder was born 29 Jan 1797 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina and died 10 Mar 1868 in Washington Co., Texas.

Gabriel Felder bought land in Mississippi and engaged in farming while also serving as a Justice of the Peace and Tax Commissioner, afterwards using the title of Judge. He purchased additional property using monies inherited from the Felder family of Orangeburg building a sizable plantation Mississippi in several counties in Adams, Amite, and Scott.

In early 1851, they removed to Texas acquiring a large tract of land near Chappell Hill in Washington County. By the time the Civil War started, Gabriel Felder was a wealthy plantation owner of the largest plantation in the county. Ann Horger Felder died in 1863 following the outbreak of the Civil War, possibly from yellow fever that had broken out on his plantation lands being used as a POW encampment during the war. They had two known children.

[Research Note B: Some compiled genealogies incorrectly state Gabriel Felder married Ann Wait. However, the genealogy letter Rev. Whetstone wrote in 1846 documenting the family members still living at that time, Ann was listed as a daughter to John Horger of Orangeburg & later Mississippi. She was named as "Ann Felder lives in Scott county Miss." Gabriel Felder was the head of household there at the time as the only prominent landowner providing the provenance of her connection to the Horger family of Orangeburg.]

- f. Rachel HORGER married Thomas SIMPSON. She died bef. 1846. Nothing further about them is known with certainty.

Though many researchers record her as the daughter of John HORGER and Rachel SHULER, there are no definitive sources recording that fact. She was not listed in Jacob Whetstone's brief genealogy written in 1846 as being among the living children. The strongest evidence of her likely existence is her mother's obituary written in 1849 that states Mrs. Rachel Moody died at her residence on Leaf River, Greene County, Mississippi "in the 83d year of her age. She was a native of Orangeburgh dist., S. C., where she married Mr. John Horger; emigrated to Mississippi in 1812, and in 1821 her husband died" The notice goes on to state she remarried to Major Martin

Moody and she was the mother of six children of whom five survive her along with her second husband. Daughter Rachel Horger would fit the description of being the 6th child, who was deceased at the time, consistent with the Whetstone narrative.

[Research Note C: Many researchers mistake the Jacob HORGER, born 1788 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina as the son of John HORGER and Rachel SHULER. This is not accurate. He was the son of Jacob HORGER (JR.) and Margaret Isabelle INABNIT, and would remove to Leon County, Florida. More information about him can be found in the Spring & Summer 2025 OGS GS Newsletters Vol. 21, No. 3 & 4.]

Migration of the Andrew KAIGLER Family

1. Andrew KAIGLER (SR), born 1730 in Eschelbach, Baden, Germany; died abt. 1810 in Williamson Co., Tennessee He married abt. 1750 in South Carolina Catherine CULPEPPER, born 1733; died abt. 1805 in Williamson Co., Tennessee.

Notes for Andrew KAIGLER (SR): Andrew Kaigler lived in Sandy Run, S. C. during the revolution, the records show that he was a Lt. in Col. Robert Goodwyn 's S.C. Regiment. Neither his entry nor date of separation therefrom is shown but his name appears on an undated pay account with the sum of 975 (pounds) opposite his name. He lived in Orangeburg during the Revolutionary War, but some years afterward he migrated to Georgia and later to Williamson County, Tenn. where he died about 1810.

Children of Andrew KAIGLER (SR) and Catherine CULPEPPER were as follows:

- a. John KAIGLER, born abt. 1751. He married Anne Carolyn LEITHER.

- b. Andrew KAIGLER (JR), born 1752; died 1821. He married in 1776 Catherine SAYLOR, born 1759; died bef. 1818.

Notes for Andrew KAIGLER (JR): Children of Andrew KAIGLER (JR) and Catherine SAYLOR were as follows: 1b1. John KAIGLER, born 8 Oct 1777 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died in Pike County, Mississippi. He married Rebecca Colson WELLS. The marriage between Rebecca Kaigler and John A. Brent. Rebecca was the daughter of John Kaigler b. 10-8-1777 in Orangeburgh Dist. who married Rebecca Colson Wells in S. C. This couple moved to Wilkinson and Pike Co. Ms. Rebecca's brothers, William W. and John D. married Catherine F. Kaigler, daughter of William Kaigler and Elizabeth Beasley. John Kaigler was the older brother of William Kaigler so Catherine married two of her first cousins. 1b2. William KAIGLER, born in Saxe Gotha, Orangeburg Dist., South Carolina; died 1829 in Woodville, Pike Co., Mississippi. He married on 15 Apr 1812 in Williamson Co., North Carolina Elizabeth H. BEASLEY, born abt. 1794 in Williamson Co., North Carolina; died 1840 in Woodville, Pike Co., Mississippi. REF: Order of First Families of MS, 2nd Register, 1991. Resided in MS in 6 Nov 1815. William Kaigler was born in Saxe-Gotha, SC before 1790 and died at Woodville, MS in 1829. On 15 Apr 1812 in Williamson Co, NC he married Elizabeth H Beasley, born in Williamson Co, NC ca 1794, died at Woodville, MS 1n 1840. CHILDREN: Children of William Kaigler and Elizabeth Beasley. Adeline m. (1) _____Harris (2)_____Darnall. Catherine F m. (1) William W Kaigler (2) John D Kaigler. Ellen A m._____. Mary Ann b. 11 Mar 1816, m. (1) Sam Lessley (2)_____Walton. Leflore Co., MS 21 Aug 1908 married William Nathaniel Scales, Woodville, MS abt. 1846, he was born Rockingham Co, NC 1825 d. Columbus, OH 9 Apr 1864. 1b3. David KAIGLER, born 1790 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1830 in Pike County, Mississippi. He married on 8 Sep 1816 in Williamson County, North Carolina Nancy MILES, died 1826. Had dau. Isabella m. Hiram Meredith Norman. Their dau. Mattie Norman m. Thomas Simpson Curtis. David moved to Pike Co. so we see all three brothers moving to Mississippi. Just like his older brother, William, David married while they were living in Williamson Co., N. C. to Nancy Miles 9-8-1816. Apparently David followed William by a couple of years moving to Mississippi.

- c. Mary Ann KAIGLER, born abt. 1752 in South Carolina; died 19 Aug 1837. She married (1) abt. 1778 in South Carolina Godfrey KERSH (SR), died in Fort Moultrie, South Carolina, son of John George KERSH (SR); (2) William GEIGER, born 1754; died 1820. From about 1793 to maturity the Kersh children lived with William Geiger at 'Chalk Hill' plantation. Chalk Hill Plantation is remembered by the name of a voting precinct in the modern county. The house stood by "Dry Creek".
- d. Lavinia KAIGLER, born 1753; died aft. 1800.

- e. George KAIGLER, born 1754 in South Carolina; died 1831. He married Elizabeth GEIGER, born 1770 in South Carolina; died 1856, daughter of John Conrad GEIGER and Barbara MURFF. Mrs. Elizabeth Geigler Kaigler gave her daughter Maria Kaigler a plantation near Montezuma, Ga. to which they moved. Montezuma is very close to Ft. Valley, Georgia, the residence of John J. Kaigler.
- f. Michael KAIGLER, born 1758 in South Carolina; died 14 Aug 1814. He married in 1787 in South Carolina Elizabeth SAYLOR, born 1769 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina; died 3 Jul 1844 in Randolph County, Georgia, daughter of Jacob SAYLOR and Elizabeth [--].
- g. James KAIGLER. He married Mary [--].
- h. William KAIGLER. A William Kaigler is mentioned in the will of one Daniel Fredrick (as a witness) signed Oct. 3, 1854. William Kaigler deeded land in Wilkinson County Mississippi in 1815.
- i. Elizabeth KAIGLER. She married abt. 1773 in South Carolina John MURFF, died 1781 in Battle of Cowpen, South Carolina, son of [--] MURFF.

Migration of the Jacob KERSH and Rachel EASTERLING Family

1. Jacob KERSH, born 15 May 1789 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 1 Aug 1853 in Rankin County, Mississippi, son of Andrew KERSH and Eva Margarreta GEYSLER. He married on 4 Nov 1812 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina Rachel EASTERLING, born 22 Apr 1797; died 29 May 1889, daughter of Enos EASTERLING and Rebecca Jean BRADWELL.

Notes for Jacob KERSH: Jacob was drafted July 1812 in Orangeburgh District, SC to serve in the War of 1812. He was discharged in March 1815. The Kersh family, with several other families from the Shiloh Meeting in Orangeburg, originally headed for Texas around 1824 or 28 via wagon train. The story goes that an oxen-pulled wagon train was passing through MS on the way to AR and TX. They paused at a spring in what is now the little settlement of Shiloh, MS. During the pause a young girl, whose name has been lost, wandered away to play. Swinging upon a grapevine, she fell and broke her neck. Delayed by a day for a proper christian funeral, which the curious Choctaw Indians watched, several of the families decided that these gentle, wooded hills offered as good a place as any to start a new life. Some of the families pushed on. Among the families who stayed were Jacob and William Kersh whose father Andrew Kersh had immigrated to SC in the 18th century and had served an indentured servitude to pay his family's passage to SC. William Kersh was an enterprising blacksmith who figured that cow bells were hard to come by on the frontier so he had hammered out a barrel full before he left and sold them along the way.

Other families who remained were the Rhodes, Myers and Varners. they were joined later by the Colliers, Nobles, Traxiers and Martins (Albert E). The Rhodes family appears to be the most prolific of the families for Rhodes marriages dominate the early Rankin County marriage books. Shiloh Cemetery in Rankin Co, MS was founded in 1828.

Children of Jacob KERSH and Rachel EASTERLING were as follows:

- a. Allen David KERSH, born 11 Oct 1816 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina. He married on 14 Jul 1836 in Crossroads Community, Rankin Co., Mississippi Sara Regene RHODES, born May 1821 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina.

Migration of the Casper SISTRUNK and Mary OLIVER Family

1. Casper SISTRUNK, born 4 Feb 1784; died 5 Feb 1857, son of Gasper SISTRUNK and Marian Leitner ([--]) Sistrunk. He married (1) on 17 Dec 1811 Mary OLIVER, born 20 Oct 1784; died 31 May 1844, daughter of Thomas OLIVER and Elizabeth SISTRUNK; (2) abt. 1849 Anne LEYSATH, born 14 Dec 1809; died 28 Jun 1888.

Notes for Casper SISTRUNK: Casper Sistrunk is supposed to have changed his name from Gasper about the time of his marriage, or a little earlier. He lived in the house his father originally built on his property located on the famous old Bull Swamp Road between Orangeburg and North, South Carolina. One of his grandsons, James Newton Sistrunk and his wife, Mary Ann K.

(Muller) Sistrunk, lived in this house for some years after their marriage in 1881. It is possible that Casper Sistrunk, before he changed his name from Gasper, could have procured the 82-acre tract of land on Dec. 30, 1805, as he was 21 years of age at that time, and the tract adjoined his father's property not far from the homestead. However, it is certain that he did get 25-1/2 acres on Little Beaver Creek in Orangeburg District on June 24, 1824, and this adjoined land he already owned and which his father had owned before him. Casper Sistrunk died before the Civil War. He had at least 5 slaves born on his place, as recorded in his Family Bible, but it is not known how many he owned. The names of three adult females are found in the records of Limestone Methodist Church in 1842, which was called Kedron Meeting House at that time.

Notes for Anne LEYSATH: Anne Leysath was the widow of James Leysath, b. May 19, 1800, d. July 28, 1847.

Children of Casper SISTRUNK and Mary OLIVER were as follows:

- a. George L.S. SISTRUNK, born 19 Aug 1812; died 28 Aug 1870. He married bef. 1842 in South Carolina Ann Sarah RILEY, born 11 Nov 1826 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina; died 12 Mar 1873 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina, daughter of Daniel RILEY.
- b. Mary O. SISTRUNK, born 11 Sep 1814; died 28 Sep 1836. She married Christian J. STALEY, born 1833.
- c. Rachel Ann SISTRUNK, born 16 Apr 1816; died 15 Nov 1839. She married [--] SEAWRIGHT.
- d. Samuel H.C. SISTRUNK, born 9 Sep 1818.
- e. Mildred S.M. SISTRUNK, born 17 Apr 1820; died 21 Jan 1887. She married William Dorson OLIVER.
- f. Ellen E. Drucilla SISTRUNK, born 19 Apr 1822; died 27 Apr 1890. She married Henry Christian OLIVER.
- g. Newton E.W. SISTRUNK, born 31 Mar 1824; died 27 Apr 1884. He married (1) on 29 Mar 1849 Jane E. LEYSATH, born 27 Jul 1834; died 28 Mar 1880; (2) in Sep 1883 Zilpah Sallie POUL.

Notes for Newton E.W. SISTRUNK: During the lifetime of Newton E. W. Sistrunk I, the Sistrunks are said to have owned more land in Orangeburg County than any other family. After the death of her husband, Z. Sallie Pou Sistrunk married Joseph D. McCormick, and had 6 other children.

- h. Caroline T.L. SISTRUNK, born 12 Mar 1826; died abt. 1849.
- i. William A.J. SISTRUNK, born 10 Aug 1828; died 3 May 1880. He married on 10 Jul 1851 in Orangeburg District, South Carolina Ann Maria CLECKLEY, born 1835; died 11 Jun 1883, daughter of Lewis CLECKLEY (JR) and Ann Maria WOLFE.
