ANTLEY

(ENDELIN, ENDELE, ENDELEY, ANDALLY)

The following biography is excerpted from much more detailed article published in the OGS Newsletter Vol. 19, No. 8 covering four generations of the ENDELIN family of Württemberg from 1615 to the time when the First Family immigrant JOHN ENDELEY petitioned the South Carolina Council for land in 1752.

First Family Biography

FIRST GENERATION

1. JOHN ENDELE was born on 6 Aug 1707 in Würtingen and was baptized there on 7 Aug 1707.[1] He was the son of JOHANNES ENDELIN and ANNA BARBARA GOLLER. John Endele and WALDBURGA SCHNITZLER were married on 31 Jan 1731 in Kohlberg, Württemberg.[2] Waldburga Schnitzler, daughter of GEORG SCHNITZLER and CATHARINA, was born in Sep 1702 in Kohlberg, and was baptized there on 21 Sep 1702.[3] She likely died sometime after leaving Kohlberg, but before her husband and 2 children arrived in South Carolina.[4]

   On 1 Dec 1752, Johannes Endele, as John Endeley, petitioned to the South Carolina Council in Charles Town, that he and his family had arrived from Rotterdam on the Snow Rowand, and he had paid his freight. He continued by stating "he has two children viz George about 15 years, and Catherina about 8 years," and requested 150 acres and a bounty. The petition was granted.[5] He had a plat certified for him in Orangeburgh Township, SC, on 24 Apr 1755.[6] John was also known as Johannes Endelin.

   John Endele and Waldburga Schnitzler had the following children:

   a. ANNA MARIA ENDELE was born on 29 Apr 1731, between the hours of 9 and 10 a.m., in Kohlberg, Württemberg, and was baptized there the same day.[7]

   b. NICOLAUS ENDELE was born on 7 Jul 1733, between the hours of 7 and 8 a.m., in Kohlberg, and was baptized there the same day.[8] He died on 22 Oct 1733, between the hours of 8 and 9 a.m., in Kohlberg, at the age of 15 weeks, and 2 days, and was buried there the following day.[9]

c. JOHANN GEORG ENDELE was born on 6 May 1735, between 8 and 9 a.m., in Kohlberg, and was baptized there the same day.[10] He died at the age of 13 weeks, on 14 Aug 1735 in Kohlberg, between 8 and 9 in the evening, and was buried there on 16 Aug 1735.[11]

d. CATHARINA BARBARA ENDELE was born on 21 Aug 1736 in Kohlberg and was baptized there the same day.[12] She died at the age of 1 year, and 9 months, on 14 May 1738, around 7 in the evening, in Kohlberg, and was buried there on 16 May 1738.[13]

+2. e. JOHANN GEORG ENDELE was born on 22 Dec 1739 in Kohlberg and was baptized there the same day.[14]

+3 f. CATHARINA BARBARA ENDELE was born on 3 Mar 1745, around 7 a.m., in Kohlberg, and was baptized there the same day.[15]

SECOND GENERATION

2. JOHANN GEORG ENDELE – George was mentioned in his father's petition to the South Carolina Council on 1 Dec 1752, for land and bounty.[16] George Endeley took communion at Pentecost in 1755 at the Church in Orangeburgh Township, SC.[17] As "George Andoley, Private," he was reported as a member in John Chevillette's Battalion of South Carolina Militia on 6 Jun 1760, which was part of the 1759 Cherokee Expedition.[18] He witnessed a deed as "George Andally" from Michael Dukes of St. Georges Parish, Berkley County, SC, planter, to Barbary Dukes his mother of same place, gentlewoman, on 29 Aug 1768. It was proved 25 Jun 1774 before Christopher Rowe, J.P. in Orangeburgh District by the oath of "George Andally."[19] He was also known as George Endeley, likely the ancestor of many of the Antleys in South Carolina.

3. CATHARINA BARBARA ENDELE – Catherina was mentioned in her father's petition to the South Carolina Council on 1 Dec 1752, for land and bounty.[20] She was also known as Catherina Endeley.

Family Migration

During the early and mid-Nineteenth century many Orangeburgh area families migrated to Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana and other points west. The information we have provided about a family's migration to another state is an attempt to document those migrations in order to assist family researchers in connecting their ancestors back to Orangeburgh or accounting for missing branches of their families.

Some members of the George Antley family migrated to Alabama. See the Orangeburgh Migration Project for more information about them.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: An initial implementation of these pages (and most of the information for them) was created by Gene Jeffries and published on this web site about 2002. The pages were removed from the web site when maintaining and updating the many files proved too onerous. With Gene's consent, we are republishing these files as an aid to Orangeburgh researchers and are working on streamlining the maintenance and update process.

DISCLAIMER: The family information included in Orangeburgh Family Migrations was compiled from a variety of sources, many of which are not documented. These pages have not been checked for accuracy and should not be treated as authoritative documentation on these families. They are provided as a hopefully helpful source of leads to further research into these families.
